

Facts on File

On the Company

- Operates as a business jet management, aircraft sales/acquisitions and air charter company under FAA Part 135 Regulations
- Founded by jet pilot Casey Miller in 2006, expanded with Solomon Short in 2011, as co-owners
- Manages the largest, newest fleet of 30 client-owned light jets in the United States
- Based at McClellan-Palomar Airport, Carlsbad, CA
- Aircraft located at Carlsbad, Fresno, Hawthorne, Long Beach, Van Nuys, Orange County airports

On the Team

- Average age of 35 employees only 37, with both owners under 40
- Most team members are pilots: Collectively logged 87,469 flight hours as of Q4 2016

On the Fleet

- Composition: Citation Sovereign, XLS+, CJ4, CJ3, CJ2, M2, Embraer Phenom 300, Phenom 100
- Average aircraft age only 3.7 years, youngest fleet in the charter business
- Ranks number 9 (upper 1.2 percent of market) of all jet aircraft management companies in the U.S.
- Ranks number 33 (with 15 jets under charter) of more than 500 U.S. jet charter operators

On Service

- 99.96 percent flight completion for 29,200 flights over ten years
- 99 percent client retention rate over its first decade
- Voted San Diego's Best Air Charter by Ranch & Coast Magazine's Readers' Poll

On Safety

- Holds the highest ARGUS Platinum Rating for Safety Management Systems
- Only 52 charter operators of over 1,000 in U.S. have earned the Platinum rating
- Company canceled only 15 flights in a decade due to maintenance issues

On the Industry

- 513 jet charter and 771 aircraft management companies operate in the U.S. today [AMSTAT]
- Global fleet of light, medium, and heavy business jets totals more than 22,000
- Forecast calls for 8,600 new business jets delivered worldwide from 2016 to 2026 [Honeywell]
- Deliveries valued at $255 billion